TILT Holdings Inc. (the "Company") is unable to timely file with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024 (the "Annual Report") without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Company currently expects to file the Annual Report within the fifteen-day extension period provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company expects that the financial statements in the Annual Report will be substantially consistent with those financial statements reported in the Company's press release dated March 19, 2025.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 contains "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that are subject to risks and uncertainties, including statements regarding the Company's expectations regarding the timing of filing its Annual Report on or before the fifteenth day following its prescribed due date (the "extension deadline"), the consistency of the financial statements in the Annual Report with the financial information in the earnings release and the completion of matters necessary to permit filing by the extension deadline. Such forward-looking statements are based on assumptions about many important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements, including risks identified in the Company's most recent filing on Form 10-K and other SEC filings, all of which are available on the Company's website. The Company can provide no assurance that these forward-looking statements will be achieved, and actual results could differ materially from those suggested by such forward-looking statements. The Company does not undertake to update its forward-looking statements unless otherwise required by the federal securities laws.
